HOUSE OF SURPRISES
Gaye Medbury Louisville, KY
Intermediate Level

This book calls you to enter. It makes you want to open it right away and discover what's inside. You will construct four houses to explore. Each house contains its own book for your thoughts, quotes, pictures of art, with expected and unexpected pockets for you to tuck in your special messages. More surprises are revealed under the detachable roof of each house. The chimney acts as a clever closure to keep the books together. This one's a winner! Bring ruler, bone folder, scissors, awl, #22-24 sewing needle, permanent glue stick, pencil, black ink pad, some small word stamps and a white pen that will write on black paper.

BOX IT, BAG IT, CAN IT All Levels
Jackie Lewis Inky Antics
If you're crazy for creative containers, you'll love this jam-packed class. You'll make 5 adorable, unique projects: an altered Pop-Top Can (it's filled with goodies that you put inside and remains sealed until the recipient "pops the top"), a Box in a Bag, a cute set of Mini Milk Carton Containers & Carrier, an attractive Capped Acetate Box, and a Double Slider Box (with space to hold a gift card on one side and small treats on the other). Your class kit will include full-color instructions and patterns for re-creation on your own. It's easy once you know the secrets! Please note that the food/candy treats shown in the samples will not be provided, but we'll provide recipe ideas and suggestions for pre-packaged products. Bring paper trimmer, scissors, one 5-yard roll of 1/8" red line tape and a roll of double-sided tape or an adhesive runner.

GLISTENING AND AEROBIC STAMPING
Judi Watanabe Judi Kins
Beginning and Intermediate Levels
Rest up the day before this class, wear your running shoes and be sure to hydrate with plenty of water - you're going to need to train for this one! Just kidding! This class is designed for you to have FUN. Judi has a few tricks up her sleeve using rich metallic inks and fantastic JudiKins stamp images. Roll up your sleeves and prepare to create not only WOW cards, but loads of them. It will look like you've broken a sweat, but with our secret, you'll glisten! Requires embossing and X-Acto knife experience. Bring a plain rubber brayer and embossing tool.

HALLOWEEN WINDOW CARDS
Pat Niemuth Northwoods
Intermediate Level
Northwoods is excited to have our students make two Halloween window cards with stamps designed just for Stampaway USA. The two cards will be a ghost card and a black cat card. Our images will be embossed on watercolor paper, colored using Tombow markers and a wet paintbrush and assembled using Tombow mono adhesive. Finally, the cards will be glittered using Dries Clear. Art Glitter accents will be Doodlebug Braddies for Halloween. As always, a gift will be given.

PEEK-A-BOO ACCORDIAN CARDS
Anne Gibson Movable-Parts
All Levels
These cards re-designed to be special greetings or gifts. See into a "sugar" Easter egg, stack some curious cats to see over each other, position polar bears to frolic in the snow, "build" a pizza for a party invitation. Four cards will be built in class, two more will be given as homework so that you can practice your own skills. All projects have full instructions, images and all materials are provided. Bring a ruler, pencil, craft knife, cutting mat, your favorite detailing scissors, an eraser and bone folder. A number of Scor-It Boards will be available for quick folding.

MILAGROS DE ARTES
 Amy Flowers Columbus, OH
 Beginning Level
 Create your own personal art shrine in this class! Using Clayboard for the base, we'll explore coloring treatments with a variety of inks, then stamp & etch the Clayboard for a unique effect. Move on to a wooden box featuring a hinged screen lid, perfect for housing your artist's muse. We'll coat the box with a custom Pearl Ex paint for a hammered metal look, then finish with collage. Mount your shrine to the Clayboard & build your very own art altar, inviting your muse to come out and play!

SCALLOPS, CIRCLES & DIE CUTS
 Sarah Justison The Paper Cut
 All Levels
 New this year - die cut shapes that make awesome cards! Go wild about all of our new design shapes, along with our popular scallop and circle cards. Make 10 cards all with either a new die cut or a scallop or circle on it. This will be a moving class, so put on your running shoes and let's have some fun. Work at your own speed—2 hours is plenty of time to finish all cards. All supplied provided, but please bring your own favorite adhesive.

UNBLOCK YOUR CREATIVITY All Levels
 Linda Crofton Apex, NC
 What do wooden blocks, decorative and antique papers, clip art and vintage tickets have in common? Plenty, when you combine them with Distress Inks, Grungeboard, and Tim Holz's new hardware line. Use all these and more to create your own Chunky ATC's. Your blocks will be painted & distressed, covered in various papers & clip art, then embellished with buttons, metal sprockets, spinners and so much more. All supplies are provided, along with specially prepared kits with ephemera galore. Feel free to bring any additional small embellishments. Bring scissors, pencil, metal edge ruler.

WATERCOLOR ART
 CJ Vogt Cincinnati, OH
 Beginning Level
 Love the beauty of watercolor paintings but are afraid of the water? Fear not! CJ Vogt will teach you how to paint beautiful watercolor images that can be transformed into stunning art-inspired greeting cards. Learn various watercolor painting techniques using rubber stamps, water-based markers and masking mediums to add depth and texture to your artwork. Materials to assemble cards at your convenience will be included. Previous watercolor painting experience not required. Bring #4 and #6 watercolor paint brushes and a selection of markers (Tombow or Marvy), including green, blue, sepia, yellow and red. Basic stamping supplies are required only for assembly of finished work.
